A 2011 Opo Sauvignon Blanc

93 points $9.99 / bottle. $119.88 / doz.

Marlborough, New Zealand. Strong herbaceous gooseberry aromas with passionfruit and a hint of citrus. Flavour filled palate with good intensity displaying that trademark Marlborough gooseberry character with some passionfruit and citrus in the background all enhanced by a crisp acid backbone. Clean finish with long gooseberry passionfruit aftertaste. Great summer quaffing! 13.5% Alc./Vol.

B 2010 Bouvet Saphir Brut

94 points $19.99 / bottle. $239.88 / doz.

Loire Valley, France. This has been our biggest selling sparkling wine for many years. Aroma of baked apple, spice, yeast lees and nougat. Creamy palate texture, with flavours of lemon, baked apple, yeast lees and tropical fruit. Clean acid finish. The creamy texture runs entirely through the wine. Long aftertaste of baked apple, spice and lees. Always a crowd pleaser. 12.5% Alc./Vol.

C NV Bouvet Rose Brut

93 points $19.99 / bottle. $239.88 / doz.

Loire Valley, France. The nose is delicate with nuances of strawberry, yeast lees and raspberry. Creamy palate texture, with flavours of yeast lees, ripe strawberry and ripe raspberry. Mouthfilling clean finish with aftertaste of strawberry, yeast lees and raspberry. Cellar 2-3 years (2009-2010) Alc/Vol: 12.5%

D 2011 Blicks Lane Sauvignon Blanc

92 points $11.99 / bottle. $138.00 / doz.

Marlborough, New Zealand. Refreshing palate flavours of passionfruit, ripe gooseberry and citrus along with a tinge of mineral on the back palate. Good mouthfeel. Clean crisp acid finish. Aftertaste of passionfruit, citrus and mineral. Drink over the next 1-2 years. Alc 13.5%

E 2010 Charles Sturt Chardonnay

91 points $12.99 / bottle. $150.00 / doz.

New South Wales. Medium weight the palate delivers flavours of white peach and ripe pear followed by some melon and spice. Clean dry finish with aftertaste of white peach, tropical fruit and spice. Drink over the next 2 years. Alc 12.5% Alc 13.5%

F 2011 Domaine de Nizas Rose

93 points $13.99 / bottle. $165.00 / doz.

Languedoc, France. The nose displays aromas of raspberry and strawberry followed by some confectionary and a hint of spice. The palate delivers generous of ripe raspberry, strawberry and confectionary with a spicy back palate. Clean dry finish with long spicy raspberry and strawberry aftertaste. Alc 13.5%

G 2007 Journeys End Vineyards The Embarkment Shiraz

95 points $19.99 / bottle. $234.00 / doz.

McLaren Vale, South Australia. Slightly dryish fine grained structured tannins are buried beneath a wealth of fruit. Excellent concentration and depth with long persistent ripe blackberry, liquorice, blackpepper and slightly earthy aftertaste. Alc 14.5%

H 2010 Three Brothers Reunited Shiraz 94 points $9.99 / bottle. $119.88 / doz.

South Australia. Rock-steady consistency is what has entrenched Three Brothers as our biggest selling red wine, with some vintages punching well above their price point. 2010 has set the stage for what will go down as one of Australia's best value reds. Drink over the next 3-4 years. Alc 14.5%

I 2011 Flametree Embers Cabernet Sauvignon 93 points $16.99 / bottle. $198.00 / doz.

Margaret River, Western Australia. The nose displays aromas of ripe dark mulberry, cedar, some tobacco characters and a hint of spice. Medium to full bodied the palate is generously flavoured with blackcurrant, dark mulberry and some cedary tobacco like characters followed by some spice on the back palate. Dry finish with very fine grained well integrated tannins. Alc 14%

J Bodega Jose De La Cuesta Pedro Ximenez Sherry 99 points $29.99 / bottle. $354.00 / doz.

Jerez, SPAIN. Deep sienna brown colour with deep green olive hue – Indicative of considerable age. The nose is a PX sniffer's delight. Raisins, treacle, molasses and Christmas cake fill the nose followed by honey and toffee end notes. The palate has oil like viscosity, and a concentration of flavour which can be compared to the Lustau PX selling at around $50/bottle. Luscious texture, with mouthfilling flavours of toffee, honey, sultana and treacle. Exceptionally long palate and aftertaste with flavours of treacle, toffee, honey and sultana. Enjoy with anything chocolate! Alc/Vol: 17%
